

Consultation Session

Holiday Inn, Harare, Zimbabwe

29th November 2022

Director of Ceremony: Tatenda Nyamhunga (WCoZ Young Women’s Forum)

Time	Agenda item	Lead facilitator
1200h – 1230h 1225h	Arrival and Registration Online delegates accepted in	CHA & Women’s Coalition of Zimbabwe (at venue) Felicity (for online delegates)
1230h – 1240h	Opening Prayer Welcome remarks Objectives	Participant volunteer Prof. Lucius Botes (Board vice Chairperson, Centre for Humanitarian Analytics) Wonder Mufunda (CEO, Centre for Humanitarian Analytics & Coordinator of Africa Humanitarian Standards Network)
1240h – 1245h	Why revision of Core Humanitarian Standard?	Rita Rhayem (Sphere Board Chairperson)
1246h – 1255h	Overview of the current version of the Core Humanitarian Standard (CHS): Gender and Social Inclusion nexus	Wonder
1256h – 1310h	Pre-Consultation reflections: From the women and PWD experiences, which of the CHS commitments have been least met? Pre-Consultation FGD results	Centre for Humanitarian Analytics
1310h – 1340h	Improving Delivery of the CHS commitments (Opinion polls) - How would you rate the overall experience with the organisations that support you in times of crisis? - Are you satisfied with the way organisations have worked in your community? Why or why not? - Are you confident (or do you trust) that organisations that work with your community always act in ways that put your needs and interests first?	Lucia Mutsvedu (Executive Director, Safety n Us) Felicity Fallon (for Online polls)

1340h – 1355h	Plenary: Making the CHS more accessible and user-friendly <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Do you have any other suggestions on how to improve the way the standard is presented or make sure it is used by organisations? - How do you think organisations can demonstrate to you that they work in effective and accountable ways? - What do you think should be done when organisations are not effective and accountable? 	Nicollete Kureya
1355h – 1400h	Conclusions Summarized the feedback and inputs from participants.	Ernest Nyimai (Acting Executive Director, National Association of Non-Governmental Organisations in Zimbabwe)
1400h – 1402h	Closing prayer	Participant volunteer
1402h	End of event

Hosted by:

In collaboration with:

With technical support from:

Sphere

Womankind Worldwide